PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO C.I.G. DIRECTIVEDEVELOPMENT OF INTELLIGENCE ON U.S.S.R.Memorandum by the Director of Central Intelligence

1. At a meeting on 23 July 1947 the Planning and Working Committees established to develop intelligence on the U.S.S.R. unanimously approved the recommendation that paragraph 6 a of C.I.G. Directive be amended to provide classification by sections and chapters of the Strategic Intelligence Digest since it was considered the classification of TOP SECRET was no longer required in all cases.

2. Accordingly, it is recommended that paragraph 6 a of C.I.G. Directive dated 9 May 1946, which now reads:

"6 a. The classification of this project shall be TOP SECRET. The greatest care will be taken to maintain the security of the existence of the operation."

be amended to read:

"6 a. The classification of the various sections and chapters of the Strategic Intelligence Digest will be established individually by the Working Committee in accordance with the intelligence materials contained therein and as required by existing Security Regulations. The greatest care will be taken to maintain the security of the existence of the operation."
